Looking back at May

Pre-K graduates get off to a good start thanks to the library and a partnership with United Way of Susquehanna County. Each pre-k student headed for kindergarten next year was provided with a bag full of literacy goodies. Your future is bright little ones!

The Dairy Ambassador, Kaylee Walker, her mom Kathy Walker, & Evie Goff donated a book called "Anywhere Farm" by Phyllis Root, to every branch in Susquehanna County.

Winner of the
"Love at the Library" Contest was Gay Wood!

books by MAIL

- This program is available to all Susquehanna County residents who have a current library card. Due to reductions in library funding, an annual fee of $35 is required to defray mailing costs.
- Any of the materials at the library may be obtained through Books-by-Mail. Requests may be made through the mail or over the phone.
- You will receive your requests in a reusable mailing envelope. Instructions for returning materials will be included in the package.
